Euskal Etxeko Berriak: Club News

Besta session has kicked off! Congratulations to Kern County who held a wonderful four day convention last weekend. Great work Gauden Bat on representing Chino and doing a fabulous job on Maskarada and Cuadrilles. In addition, Noka shared their beautiful voices with Mikel Markez for two lovely performances. If you missed it, you can see them at the club this Sunday! On the handball court, Chino juniors Peyo & Niko took home a win at 25-15. Aupa gasteak! Class B doubles, Edwin and Manual won 25-15. Class A singles played by Alberto was close with a 21-22 loss. Class A doubles played by Mike and Francisco resulted in another Chino win at 25-11. If anyone is interested in joining these competitive players contact Mike at (714) 715-7072 or mikeexa70@gmail.com. In Pala, brothers Christian and Jake competed against Bakersfield (27-35). Some additional games were played by Riley, Jackson and Jacob with and against Bakersfield youth.

Come out this Sunday, June 1st for our club lunch and music presentation by Noka & Mikel. Also don't miss our immigrant dinner on June 21st where we will honor those who arrived between 1956-1960. Before the new video we will show last years video which highlighted those who arrived prior to 1956. Thank you Marianna for your wonderful efforts towards preserving our history. All who attended the founders dinner would agree Marianna's video was terrific. You can find the Chino Club history video on our website.

BETI GAZTE: A group of friends (any age welcome) that hang out at their Basque Club once a month and share in conversation and other activities. Stay tuned for the start date!

Any dancers out there who still want to join the dance group please call Maite Maisterrena at (909)240-5159
